

Department of Functional English

Programme Outcome: The expected outcome of this course is to enable students to put into practice the four skills of English- Listening, Speaking, Reading & Writing. The course is activity-based and student-centered as a conscious attempt to provide students the opportunity to develop communication skills and competence in language use, and to improve fluency of the English language, thereby creating further avenues to express themselves and to communicate more confidently and efficiently. This also encourages independent thinking in students and assists them to implement hypothesis on various issues. “On the job training” guides students and prepares them for the job market they will enter after graduation, and assists them in finding a specific area they want to pursue after their graduation.

Course Name	Course Outcomes
FUNENG 131: Communicative English 1	Students are trained to be fluent in English pronunciation and acquire a sound knowledge of major styles and regional varieties of English.
FUNENG 132 : Remedial Grammar	Students develop ability to use English language grammatically and confidently, especially in those areas where non-native users of English face problems.
FUNENG 133 : Writing Skills	Students develop ability to write English effectively for various specific purposes.
FUNENG 134 : Oral Communication	Students are trained to use English fluently in oral communications.
FUNENG 135 : Mass Media & Broadcasting	Students are provided with an intensified training in the English language applying career avenues of Mass Communication and Broadcasting.
FUNENG 136 : English in On the Job Training	Students are trained and equipped to enter job markets according to their aptitude and interest.

